

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Elsie Bell Grosvenor, January 3, 1922

Copy of letter from Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, 1331 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C., to Mrs. Gilbert H. Grosvenor, 1328 — 18th Street, Washington, D. C.; dated January 3, 1922. 1331 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C., Jan. 3, 1922. Mrs. Gilbert H. Grosvenor, 1326 — 18th Street, Washington, D. C. Dear Elsie

It is only within the last few days that I have learned that Bert is a Vice-President of the Cosmos Club, and a candidate for the Presidency, and I am sure I wish him every success.

I have never taken any part in the proceedings of the Club; and I conceive that it would be improper for me to do so now for the reason that Bert is my son-in-law.

I would be proud indeed to know that the Cosmos had elected him President without any solicitation upon my part.

In any case all his friends know that he is worthy of the honor and would make a fine President. My best wishes are for his success.

Your loving father Alexander Graham Bell
